History

Over 300 years ago, François Dubois planted his first vines on the hillsides in Reignac de Blaye. Nine generations later, Laurent and his wife Isabelle continue the family tradition of cultivating the noble land of Château Les Bertrands. Over the years, successive investment in vines has extended the size of the vineyard to the hundred plus hectares it is today.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of red fruits, especially cassis, raspberry and cherry, on the nose. Supple attack with elegant tannins. Round, rich and powerful pallet. Long, pleasant finish
